4. Skills to be gained / general learning objectives

At the end of this module, the students have to :

handle the most of the skills in Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing, corresponding to level B2 – related to economics –, such as defined by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Thus students can “understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation ; interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party ; produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.”

(Cadre européen commun de référence pour les langues : apprendre, enseigner, évaluer. Paris, Didier, 2001, p 25.)

5. Teaching and content

Topics and vocabulary : Students will learn a wide economic vocabulary studying economic topics based on documents up to date issued by different media. Complementary political and socio-cultural topics will be studied.

Grammar : Consolidating of grammar skills on Level B2.
